Digital Impact Monitor

Objects from the Artothek with their hosts

In the depot

100 new homes for one artwork ≈ 110m²
of depot space
could be feed up.

100 smiling faces.
100 new stories.
100 new connections.
200 pairs of eyes.

What if we measured the success of a collection not only by how well we preserve it,

but by the impact it has on society?
